

TORNADO, STORMS HIT OHIO VALLEY AREAS

House Group Trims Treasury, Postal Budgets

Demo-Controlled
Committee Criticizes
Post Office Dep't

WASHINGTON (U-P) — The House Appropriations Committee bluntly told the Post Office Department today to worry less about getting completely reorganized and more about delivering the mail.

The Democratic-controlled committee, in its first crack at the Eisenhower administration's budget, also told the department it is time "some of the substantial savings" promised from reorganization show up in dollars and cents.

So, the committee lopped $69,117,000 off the department's request for $2,754,817,000 for operating funds during the fiscal year starting next July 1.

In the same bill—the first regular money measure of the session—the committee also took a swing at the Treasury Department. It voted to abolish the job of Asst. Secretary of the Treasury Laurence B. Robbins. He has charge of rubber and tin programs and other assets transferred from the now-defunct Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The committee said Robbins' post, created by the last Republican Congress, isn't necessary any longer because of progress made in disposing of the assets.

Cut Treasury Request
Altogether, the committee cut $8,380,000 from the Treasury's request by the Tax Court of the United States.

Altogether, the cuts amount to $77,697,000 or 2.3 per cent—from the administration's budget requests.

The committee's criticism of the Post Office Department was set forth in a report prepared by a subcommittee, headed by Rep. J. Vaughan (D-Va.).

"There is some evidence that the department's top management... has become so enamored with reorganization that it has 'overlooked' its 'primary duty,' that of insuring 'the mails are handled expeditiously,'" the report said.

"Perhaps the problems and complaints of the local postmaster may seem minuscule but their prompt disposition is a 'must,' the report added.

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield in testimony before the subcommittee last month claimed the reorganization drive already had paid off in better mail service at lower cost.

Other congressional news:
RISK: State Department security chief R. W. Scott McLeod told a Senate group he would take a chance and hire a Communist or other security risk if he had to get a necessary job done. But he assured the senators he couldn't recall ever having done that and would never do it unless it was absolutely necessary.

PERESS: The Senate investigating subcommittee voted unanimously to start hearings next week on Irving Peress, the ex-Army major dubbed by Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) as "a Fifth Amendment Communist."

MILITARY PAY: A bill raising military pay, which sailed through the House 399 to 1 Thursday, headed for rougher treatment in the Senate. Observers said the Senate may lower the increase, reducing the total $745,845,015 annual cost of the raises. The House bill would boost by amounts ranging from six to 25 per cent the pay of enlisted men with more than two years' service and of officers with more than three.

DELINQUENCY: A Senate subcommittee warned there may be 1,700,000 juveniles in trouble with the police in 1960 unless the current rising tide of delinquency is curbed. The committee said more and better schools, expanded public housing and an enlarged mental health program would help ease the problem.

Youth Killed in Fall from Tractor

SULLIVAN, Ill. (U-P) — James A. Hall, 19, Allenville, was killed Thursday when he fell from a tractor on his father's farm.

His father, A. B. Hall, found his son lying unconscious in the field after noticing the tractor and manure spreader running in circles without a driver in the field where the youth had been working. The boy died in an ambulance taking him to a doctor's office here.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL FIRE INSURANCE DRAFTS totaling $206,377.86 were deposited Thursday by Arthur Plumlee, treasurer of Harrisburg Public School District 43. Shown above, Mr. Plumlee and K. Dale Wilson, county superintendent of schools, are endorsing the drafts from 26 insurance companies, which shared the loss. Mr. Wilson's signature was required as secretary of the Saline County Board of School Trustees, in which body all titles to school property are vested. The insurance represented $188,167.20 on the old Junior high school building and contents and $18,210.66 on the new building. Since a portion of the new building improvements extended into the old building at the time of the fire, it is estimated about $12,000 will be required to repair the damage to the new building, and the balance of approximately $194,000 will be used to rebuild the old structure. An additional $87,500 will be required to rebuild and refurbish the old building, and permission to issue bonds in that amount will be asked at an election to be held Saturday, April 2. The insurance received covered the value of the loss at the time of the fire, but new construction will cost more than the value of the building at the time of the fire. (Register Staff Photo)

Rainfall During Night Totals .09 Inch

Rainfall during the night which was accompanied by wind and lightning measured .09 inch, Harrison Kibler reported.

Mr. Kibler reported the gauge at the Route 13 bridge on Middle Fork road 15.40 feet this morning and that the creek should continue to get higher from Ohio river backwater at least until Monday.

Meanwhile, the 3,000 and the 750 gallon per minute pumps continued to operate at the city reservoirs.

MAIL: Received a letter from Roy C. Small, son of the boss and his boss, Margaret. Roy has gone to work at Cadillac, Mich., on a newspaper and he writes he has run into an occupational hazard which they didn't teach him how to cope with when he was in school.

The hazard is the weather. There's a story in the paper telling about his setting out snow a story and running into after a deep that some got into his breast pocket.

"The story doesn't mention such little tricks as learning how to drive a car over a solid sheet of ice," he commented. "Most of the back roads are solid ice this time of year with powder snow on top of them."

Small says the real secret of getting around in a car is not chains, but a job any gas station does for three dollars.

"You put each tire on a revolving cylinder which makes thousands of minute perforations in the tire tread," he explains. "Somehow or other this gives your car more traction on the ice."

I WAS READING in a column in a Campaign paper that Miss Mary Taylor of the University of Illinois, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shannon Taylor, is one of three U. of I. students chosen to enter a national contest, "Beauty in Glasses."

This contest is open to co-eds with modeling experience who wear glasses.

'No Choice' But to Seek Penny Sales Tax Boost, Stratton Says

SPRINGFIELD (U-P) — An increase in the Illinois sales tax seemed assured today after Gov. William G. Stratton said he had "no choice" but to seek a penny sales tax boost.

Stratton was questioned by newsmen at his open house Thursday about the Illinois State Budgetary Commission's recommendation that he seek more revenue.

In answer to a question about what kind of tax he could or would support, the governor said a state income tax is banned, a state property tax has been abandoned and there was "no choice" but to boost the sales tax.

The governor said he would also consider a "use tax," an assessment at the same rate as the sales tax on goods bought out-of-state by Illinois residents.

The Budgetary Commission urged Stratton to seek more revenue to meet needs of schools, welfare services and state building.

Commission Chairman Sen. Everett R. Peters (R-St. Joseph) said he was "positive" Stratton would have to seek the 1 cent sales tax increase.

Stratton said the 1955-57 state aid to schools accepted formula would cost $200,600,000, up almost $60,000,000 and this would require "additional revenue."

Earlier, the governor had conferred with Alvin Rose, Chicago welfare director, about a recent cut in state payments to relief by 10 per cent in Chicago and some downstate areas.

Rose said Stratton indicated he might support a bill to make a deficiency appropriation to wipe out the cut. A bill for a 5½-million-dollar deficiency has been submitted to the Illinois House. Rose said a smaller sum might be sufficient.

MEEK SAYS RETAIL
GROUP WILL OPPOSE BOOST
IN STATE SALES TAX

CHICAGO (U-P) — Joseph T. Meek, president of the Illinois Federation of Retail Assns., said today that Illinois shopkeepers will oppose any increase in the state sales tax.

"Regardless of the recommendations of the State Budgetary Committee for a sales tax increase and rumors that the administration may eventually support such an increase," Meek said.

15 Producing Oil Wells Completed In Eldorado Field During February

URBANA, Ill. — Fifteen producing oil wells were completed in the Eldorado area in February, according to John C. Frye, chief of the State Geological Survey division of the Illinois Department of Registration and Education.

Five of the 15 came in for 1,000 to 1,200 barrels daily, the February drilling report said, and five more for 450 to 1,000 barrels. Four of the remaining five were approximately 200-barrel wells.

22 Dead, Five Missing in Plane Accidents

11 Crewmembers
Parachuted Safely
At Cullman, Ala.

By United Press
A rash of plane crashes has killed 22 persons, left five missing and feared dead, and stranded a veteran "bush pilot" in the Idaho wilderness.

A possible tragedy also was averted when 11 crewmembers parachuted to safety as their C-119 Flying boxcar crashed at Cullman, Ala.

The worst air mishap was revealed Thursday night when a ground search party reached an Air Force C-54 which crashed in jungle-covered Formosa mountains Sunday with 14 vacationing servicemen aboard.

The search party, which took four days to reach the wreckage, reported all 14 servicemen had been killed.

Another mountain tragedy took five lives and possibly 10 in Utah. A search party was to set out today to reach the snow-bound Utah mountains where an Air Force man and two civilians crashed Wednesday night.

The plane's wreckage was spotted Thursday night. There were no signs of life.

Meanwhile, the search continued for a Beechcraft civilian plane which disappeared in the same area with a wealthy Chicago businessman, his nine-year-old son, and three men aboard.

Another Beechcraft crashed and burned in rugged mountain country near Dahlonega, Ga., Thursday, killing two young Ohio men en route to Cuba. They were identified as Rogers A. Miller, 27, of Norwood and George Menz, 28, of Lebanon.

At Colorado Springs, Colo., Thursday night at least one man was killed when an Air Force jet crashed into an open field shortly after takeoff. The victim's name was withheld and it was not known immediately whether another Air Force man had been killed.

A happier story was unfolding in the primitive Salmon River country of Idaho, where 52-year-old bush pilot Bill Woods made a near-impossible forced landing on a patch of ice.

Woods, who calls himself "the old man of the mountains," was doing fine in the forest country and was expected to buck his way thru deep snow to Indian Creek landing strip today.

The Utah search for the B-25 was also hampered by snow and cold so intense that officials hesitated to send men into the area because "someone else might freeze to death."

The plane crashed near the top of 11,500-foot Mt. Timpanogos, 30 miles south of Salt Lake City.

Aboard were Maj. Dan C. Hawley, 35, Springfield, Mass.; 2nd Lt. Howard E. St. John, 25, Barnardville, N. J.; Airman 2-c Doyle H. Dempsey, Hawkins, Tex.; and Donald R. Cubbage, 45, and Maurice M. McNulty, both of Great Falls, Mont.

Those aboard the missing Beechcraft were Robert Willis, wealthy Chicago plywood broker, and his son, Jacques; co-pilot George Dott, Barrington, Ill.; Harry Knutson of San Francisco and Lewiston, Ida.; and a man identified as Harry Gindale of Pittsburgh, Pa.

GOP Attacks on Butler's Statement Adds Pressure On President to Run Again

By LYLE C. WILSON
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (U-P) — The angry Republican explosion of protest against a political reference to Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower's health just about added up today to some more pressure on the President to be a candidate next year for re-election.

He doesn't want to do it. But the heat is on.

Not in years has the capital seen a political maneuver so quickly organized and effected as Thursday's on the subject of Mrs. Eisenhower's health.

Republicans individually and in groups mauled Democratic National Committee Chairman Paul M. Butler for a news conference suggestion that her health was one reason Mr. Eisenhower would not run again.

Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.), former speaker and now Republican House leader, opened the attack which continued throughout Thursday. It became a bitter, personal assault on Butler, whose character and conduct were shredded in angry debate.

Butler's The Target
"Loathsome; irresponsible; scoundrel; low animal in human form," were some of the Republican bouquets for Butler as members addressed the House and Senate in angry terms.

Astonishing to many in Washington was the scope and vigor of the Republican rebuke. It scarcely could have been less than inspired and organized by someone, although over a period of 20 years, members of Franklin D. Roosevelt's family were the subject of public and private comment considerably less flattering than Butler's comment on Mrs. Eisenhower's health.

The organized co-ordination of the Republican uproar was evidence enough of the party's recognition of Mr. Eisenhower as the best Republican bet in 1956 and its determination to put him up again. And Republican orators may have been fired to greater heat by suspicion that there was some substance in Butler's remarks.

The capital grapevine reported that President thought Butler was playing "kind of low" politics.

Health Basically Good
The only qualified witness was the White House physician, Dr. Howard McC. Snyder. He said that aside from a heart condition of which the public long has been aware, Mrs. Eisenhower's health is basically good. The heart condition was described as a "murmur" which sometimes limits her activities. She sometimes has suffered from over-fatigue. She does not like to fly at high altitudes. She is bedded right now for a few days with flu. Otherwise, said Dr. Snyder: "There is no illness."

Butler took the abuse in stride, explaining that he merely had referred to published reports as to Mrs. Eisenhower's health in relation to 1956 politics. He recognized the outcry as symptomatic of Republican desire to renominate Mr. Eisenhower.

"If their (the Republican) purpose is to persuade Mr. Eisenhower to be a candidate in 1956, they would be better advised to spend their time in supporting Mr. Eisenhower's program instead of wasting time berating me," Butler added.

Causes Heated Discussion
The contemplated declaration already has caused heated discussion in the Democratic cloakrooms. And some Democratic freshmen have refused to take any part in the formation of the statement.

It was understood these dissenting freshmen legislators have informed sponsors of the planned statement that they believe it would, wittingly or unwittingly, undermine the effect of the recently approved resolution calling for Formosa's defense. This resolution was passed overwhelmingly in the House with support of the Democratic leadership.

But leading advocates of the "declaration of foreign policy" disputed this. They said the contemplated statement has nothing whatever to do with supporting the House Democratic leadership on foreign policy. They said statement sponsors are in complete sympathy with the leaders.

Nothing Definite Yet
They also emphasized nothing has been decided definitely. There have been many suggestions on points that could be included in the declaration, but even the form of the declaration should take is still in doubt.

The sources said the draft proposed that Mr. Eisenhower, with the approval of some 30 Asian and African nations — the large world powers are not included — inform the world that the United States is ready to:

1. Agree to a U. N. trusteeship over Formosa, with elections deciding the island's rulers.

2. Agree to work through the U. N. against colonialism and for the economic improvement of underdeveloped nations.

3. Work in the U. N. to push Russia back to her 1939 boundaries and to create a U. N.-protected federation of independent nations out of her present satellites in Central Europe.

U. of I. Speaker to Address Kiwanis Club Tuesday Night

Dr. Bob Jones from the University of Illinois Anthropology and Sociology department will address members of the Kiwanis club and the general public at the Kiwanis meeting Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple.

The regular Kiwanis weekly dinner will begin at 6 p. m. and the address will begin about 6:30. The public is invited to attend at 6:30 and those who wish to attend the dinner may do so by making reservations by Saturday noon with the club secretary, Ralph Woolard, at Polk's shoe store.

Dr. Jones for the past few months has been conducting a survey in 13 counties in southern Illinois on what is happening to the communities of those areas, how events in the past have affected current events, and prospects for the future.

His address will deal with Saline county communities Tuesday night.

Fire Destroys Mill at Cairo

CAIRO, Ill. — A fire of undetermined cause destroyed the Cairo Meal and Cake Milling Co. here Thursday.

The owner of the mill, A. T. Madra, estimated the loss at $25,000. The mill ground cotton cake and grain and was rebuilt after a fire partly destroyed it in 1946.

Madra said he will rebuild the mill again.

Ohio River Flood Crest Nears Louisville

Five Persons are Dead in Storms; Winds Cause Dust Storms

By United Press
A tornado, other winds of hurricane force, and thunderstorms buffeted the Ohio Valley area and Pennsylvania today, and rains fell along the flooding Ohio river as its crest neared Louisville.

Five dead were counted in the storms.

Lightning touched off a fire at Union City, Ind., and the city police chief said damage might reach one million dollars.

Far to the west, drought-parched soil was kicking into the air under the lashing of March winds across farm areas, bringing further damage to some regions already suffering wind erosion.

Floods Take Toll
A building collapsed under the winds at Brookville, Pa., killing Orin Ramsey, 37, a workman. At Allegheny County Airport, in Pennsylvania, weather men reported winds up to 92 miles an hour in gusts.

At Connersville, Ind., about 40 miles from the Ohio river, a tornado tore the roof from the Rex Manufacturing Co. plant, a division of the Philco Corp. It overturned railroad box cars. Other winds felled trees in parts of Indiana.

Winds of 58 miles an hour hit Cincinnati, where the Ohio river flood crest passed only 24 hours earlier.

At Louisville, City Engineer W. W. Sanders said sandbag walls could be raised in an industrial area along River Road against the floodwaters if the water went beyond its predicted crest. A weather man said it would take an inch or more of rain, however, to delay the natural fall of the flood crest.

The winds in Pennsylvania knocked down an ore bridge at the Homestead Works of U. S. Steel Corp. and felled the broadcasting towers of WENS-TV at Pittsburgh and WLOA at North Braddock.

Three persons were injured when a chimney collapsed, and wide areas of Pittsburgh were blacked out as the winds blew down power lines and lightning burned out transformers.

Ohio Gets Tornado Warning
A tornado warning was issued in Ohio as savage hail storms covered most of the state's mid-section, hitting Columbus to the accompaniment of winds clocked at 69 miles per hour.

In the eastern Ohio town of New Comerstown 25 roofs were ripped off or damaged.

Elsewhere in the nation, chocolate-grey dust clouds settled over an eight-state Southwest area, but a new dust storm cut visibility to zero at Lamar, Colo.

A March heat wave set new records through the nation's mid-section. The highest temperatures ever recorded for so early in the season Thursday included 91 at Tulsa, Okla., 85 at Wichita, Kan., 83 at Kansas City, Mo., 86 at Springfield, Ill., 77 at Peoria, Ill., and 76 at Burlington, Iowa.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

Optimistic Outlook

Editorial By Bruce Blossat Quietly, while we Americans have been attending mostly to other things, the specter of depression that seemed to haunt many of us in 1954 has slipped away into the mists.

No one would argue that we do not still have a considerable body of unemployed or that there are not areas and particular industries in continuing distress. But the general picture appears to be steadily brightening, and it is no longer accurate to say we are in a recession.

As a matter of fact, new figures from the U. S. Commerce Department show that in the last three months of 1954 economic activity in this country had climbed back to a level exceeded only narrowly in two quarters of 1953. Most of the signs suggest we are pushing even higher in these first months of 1955.

What the department, and the economists, call the gross national product, the measure of all goods and services produced in the nation, was turned out in the final 1954 quarter at an annual rate of $362 billion. This was about $5 billion better than the average for the full year, which is a gauge of the improvement in those last months.

A current look at the steel industry feeds optimism about the immediate future. After one of its weakest years in a long time, it has lifted output back to 83 per cent of capacity and seems still on the rise.

Automobile production jumped off well in early 1955, and construction men are predicting a banner year in commercial and residential building. These activities don't tell the whole story, but they are always vital props to a prosperous American economy.

Since we continue to grow rapidly in population, economists and many public figures contend with some justice that it is not enough merely to regain or hold former high levels of output. That would not be stability but a sort of stag-nation.

We have reason to be heartened by the improvement in the economy during the past several months.
This is especially so because the rebound has occurred despite failing military outlays which in the years since 1939 have so often played a big role in sustaining prosperity.

But we have no right to indulge in smug smiles until economic activity surpasses the old peaks and shows unmistakably that we can catch up to and then keep pace with the heading growth of the nation. Our leaders are confident we can, and the history surely suggests that their faith is well founded.

Britain and The H-Bomb

Britain's decision to build an H-bomb may help to serve as a useful corrective for some of those around the world who have perhaps misconstrued the meaning of British foreign policy.

In dealing with the critical problems growing out of the world struggle with communism, more often than not Britain has arrayed itself on the side of conference and negotiation—sometimes even when that process looked pretty hopeless.

This occasionally has exasperated some Americans, especially our more militant brethren who saw the policy as "softness." On the other hand, neutrals like India have now and then assumed that it par-alleled closely their own unrealistic notion that military safeguards against the Reds are unnecessary and actually provocative of war.

But Britain has disabused both sides. For building an H-bomb has no place in a soft policy, nor does it give comfort to those who imagine the Reds will be good fellows if we will scrap the guns and planes and annul all defensive pacts.

Perpetual Commotion

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says:
Synthetic Rubber Already
Short As U. S. Sells Its Wartime Factories; Uncle Sam Could Make Money By Keeping Factories; Senators Let Winchell Off Easy.

WASHINGTON. — Some of the facts lurking in the background of our synthetic rubber situation don't look good.

Despite this, the administration continues determined to turn the rubber factories, built at enormous expense to the taxpayer, over to the big rubber and oil companies.
In fact, if Congress doesn't act, they automatically are sold on March 26.

Here are some of the disturbing facts which Congress ought to take a careful look at:
Low Stockpile — All government press releases regarding synthetic rubber reserves have suddenly stopped. They used to be published once a month but none since January 20. Reason: The synthetic rubber reserve has dropped alarmingly. Though we're supposed to keep 60,000 tons on hand, today we have only 38,000 tons,
which will drop to 28,000 by April 26. (The synthetic factories are to be sold on March 26, delivered April 26.)

Little Companies Squeezed —
The rubber companies ordered a total of 61,000 tons of government synthetic rubber for March, have other orders of 69,000 tons for April. Yet the factories will produce only 61,000 in March and 59-000 in April. On top of this, production will drop another 45,000 units yearly after the factories are sold, because General Tire and Rubber hasn't made a deal with the government to buy the Bay-town, Tex., synthetic plant. This certain shortage means that little companies won't be able to buy after April.

Only 22 tire companies consume
72 per cent of all synthetic rubber.
Of these, the big four alone consume 60 per cent. But there are scores of other companies needing rubber for other purposes which may not be able to buy it after April 26.

Bonanza For Big Business — Under the terms of the sale, private companies pay Uncle Sam $260-000,000 for the rubber factories.
Meanwhile the factories are making an annual profit averaging about $64,000,000. This means that if the U. S. government kept the plants and ran them for four years, it would make as much profit as the purchase price.

Another way of putting it: The big boys who are buying the factories pay for them out of profits.
In the end the factories cost nothing. It's a good deal if you can get it, and the companies will have it on March 26—unless Congress acts.

"Uncle Sap" — Though the best rubber factories are being sold,
"Uncle Sap" is keeping the most expensive to operate—at Institute, W. Va. This will be kept on a stand-by basis, because private industry won't buy it. In other words, the big boys are skimming the cream while Uncle Sap takes the curd.

Reds March On — Meanwhile the march of communism into Southeast Asia, chief world source of natural rubber, continues.

WASHINGTON WHIRL

Allen Dulles, efficient head of Central Intelligence and brother of the secretary of state, plans to bow out. His hero son, terribly wounded in the Korean War, isn't recovering as hoped. Allen wants to give all his time to the boy.
Gen. Lucien K. Truscott, now in Europe, has been groomed to take his place, though for the time being it will be Gen. Chas. P. Cabel, a young army officer of great promise. Stern Elia Briggs will be the new U. S. ambassador to Peru. He's served in the tough posts of Korea and Czechoslovakia, deserves a chance to relax in pleasant Peru. Probably, however, he won't. He's too serious.

... Harold Tittman, retiring U. S.
ambassador to Peru, turned out to be one of the most successful envoys we have sent there...
Charles Mahaffie, one of the most respected men ever to serve on the Interstate Commerce Commission, has joined Max Gardner's law firm. Ike retired him from the ICC... Simultaneously, Ike pulled one law partner away from the same firm—ex-Sen. John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky who's going to India as ambassador — one of the most difficult and important jobs in the diplomatic lineup.

PROBE OF WALTER

"Walter The Winch," as he's sometimes called on Broadway, got off fairly easily when the Fulbright Committee probed his stock-market tips. The senators might have dug up two sleepers in Winchell's variegated career as a stock-market tipster which would have caused even redder faces around the Stork Club. They were:

1. Head of Pantepec Oil, which Winchell sent into a mad rush of buying and profit-taking, is William F. Buckley, father of the famed McCarthy apologist. Winchell is close to the McCarthy-Buckley clique. It would have been interesting had the senators probed the whys and wherefores of Winchell's tip.

2. Walter's worst stock-market bull wasn't uncovered by the senators — namely, his broadcast of Sept. 26 in which he plugged Wyoming-Gulf Sulphur, which already had been enjoined from selling new stock. A federal court injunction had been issued 13 days before preventing the sale of new stock, yet Winchell gave it a big send-off.

On Sept. 13, the Securities and Exchange Commission applied for an injunction in the U. S. District Court of southern New York against John F. McBride, John F.
McBride Co., Inc., and Wyoming-Gulf Sulphur to prevent the sale of new common stock. The injunction was granted.

Reason for the injunction: Mc-Bride had devised a neat way of getting around the SEC. Instead of registering with the SEC, he asked those who already owned stock to lend it back to him, permitting him to sell their stock and giving them new stock in return, plus a 5 per cent bonus.

Because of this, Wyoming-Gulf Sulphur had been under SEC investigation since June 1, three months before Winchell plugged it.
Note — Maybe Walter had better stick to the advice he broadcast 10 years ago. On Dec. 26, 1945, he proclaimed: "A big break before January 1. Stock market buyers are suckers!"

Keener Hearing
During World War I, blind men were used to man microphones set men who could see.

Mrs. Gladys Godbey of Eldorado visited home folks Tuesday.

Several from Sulphur Springs attended the Bethel series of meetings carried on by Rev. Clyde Vin-

John Adams who has been on the sick list is improving.

Mrs. Gladys Godbey accompanied by her mother, Mrs. K. Church, visited the Coffee cemetery Tuesday, taking flowers for the grave of Mrs. Godbey's husband, Rev. War-

Kressa Church had the misfortune of losing a fine horse which died suddenly Tuesday evening.

All had a nice time meeting with Mrs. Laverne Hathaway and quilting. A lovely dinner was prepared at noon.

The water is rapidly rising and is dangerous for people in low

Many are getting new baby chicks and a lot already have them almost big enough to fry.

HOTTEST BUICK IN HISTORY

No wonder you see so many 1955 Buicks on the highways—they're rolling up bigger sales than ever before in history—topping the popularity that has already made Buick one of the "Big Three" in total national sales.

Who says you can't have getaway and gas saving too?

(maybe you'd better try Variable Pitch Dynaflo!)

As any automotive engineer will tell you, the goal in automatic transmissions has long been a design that would give top acceleration and top gas mileage—and still be absolutely smooth.

Well, it's easy to step up acceleration, or gas mileage—but tough to do both together—unless a lot of gearshifting takes place, which cuts down on smoothness.

So Buick engineers looked to aviation for the answer—and brother!
what a wondrous new magic they came up with!

They took a leaf from the airplane's variable pitch propeller—which switches the pitch of its blades one way for quick take-off—and another way for better gas mileage aloft.

They brought the same principle to Dynaflo Drive*—to the twenty propeller-like blades in the Dynaflo "stator." They engineered these blades to swivel like the blades of the plane propeller—and with the same results.

In cruising and in all normal driving, the blades are angled for fuel economy—and you get a lot more miles from a tankful of gas.

But when you need to move instantly—when you need quick getaway, or a sudden burst of safety-surge power to get out of a tight spot on the highway—you just press down that gas pedal, and you're off in a split second.

You've never felt anything like it before—because there's never been anything like it before in an automobile.

It's action that's sheer thrill—action
that's backed by the highest V8 horsepowers in Buick history—action that's sending Buick sales soaring to record-high levels.

Come in and try it, at the wheel of a Buick SPECIAL, CENTURY, SUPER or ROADMASTER. You have nothing to lose—and the most thrilling buy of the year to meet.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

General Federation President of Women's Clubs to Visit Here, Dist. Meeting Told

Women of the 24th District of the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs, who were guests of the Harrisburg Woman's club Thursday, learned that Mrs. Theodore Chapman, General Federation president, will visit Harrisburg on Saturday, March 19, at 3:30 p. m.

This announcement was made by Mrs. Roy Milburn, New Burnside, at a meeting of the executive board of the 24th district. Mrs. Milburn said that Mrs. Chapman is making a tour of southern Illinois to emphasize the drive to erect a cross on Bald Knob, which will rise 500 feet above the summit of the most prominent and scenic peak in the midwest.

She will speak on Monday, March 14, at The Haven, a recreation area near the Veteran's hospital in the Crab Orchard lake area in Williamson county. Both The Haven and The Cross are General Federation sponsored.

The district also went on record Thursday as favoring the proposed establishment of a Southern Illinois art camp at Du Quoin, to operate simultaneously with the Southern Illinois Music camp, which is Federation sponsored. Monticello is the nearest federation-sponsored art camp now in operation.

Mrs. Walter Collins, state chairman of resolutions and revisions, and a member of the board of trustees of Southern Illinois university, was the main speaker from the federation at Thursday's meeting. She mentioned proposed revisions to the Illinois Federation of Women's clubs constitution and by-laws.

The board meeting was at the Christian church, where the pastor, the Rev. Glen Daugherty, gave a brief devotion, following the song, "Onward Federation," and a welcome address by the Harrisburg club president, Mrs. J. L. Miller, and response by Mrs. D. L. Barthel, Eldorado, past regional president.

Also from her own club, Mrs. Milburn chose Mrs. Roy Seel to pay tribute to the past presidents of the district, who were guests of honor. During luncheon they were introduced, presented with gifts, and each invited to speak. Corsages were presented to Mrs. Milburn, Mrs. Collins and to Mrs. J. A. Musgrave.

Mrs. Musgrave was presented as the winner of the short story and poetry contest held by the Literature department of the 24th district. Her prize winning story and poem is entered in the state contest. Friendship gifts from Mrs. Milburn lay beside each past district president's plate.

Ten past presidents of the district were present as follows: Mrs. J. B. Blackman, Mrs. H. B. Bauman, and Mrs. R. C. Davenport, Harrisburg; Mrs. W. A. Ball, Carmi; Mrs. Frank Medley, and Mrs. Robert Gatewood, Flora; Mrs. Rose Wood Bennett, Flora; Mrs. George H. Moseley, Metropolis; Mrs. P. L. Wettaw and Mrs. D. L. Barthel, Eldorado. Mrs. Blackman made the response to the beautiful tribute paid by Mrs. Seel.

The district chorus group with Mrs. J. M. Hart, director, and Mrs. G. H. Muggie as pianist, sang at the opening of the afternoon session.

Club reports showing a great variety of projects, and plans for the district convention to be held April 27 at Metropolis, were given prominence. Seven delegates from the district to the state convention were elected.

Jonquil and forsythia from the yards of Mrs. Hart and Mrs. F. S. Gray were employed in decoration of the church basement, where luncheon was served. Tables were gay with St. Patrick's Day shamrocks, hats and napkins, and the shamrock was also the registration badge presented to each of the 87 club women attending. Mrs. G. B. Wiley and Mrs. John Foster were in charge of registration and Mrs. Ray Johnson, luncheon tickets.

Mrs. E. B. Webster, Mrs. C. C. Porter and Mrs. L. B. Kimmel were on the reception committee.

Mrs. Harry Barter and Mrs. George Robertson decorated the auditorium where the meeting took place. Blooming plants graced the speakers platform.

Mrs. Charles Ridenour was a guest soloist, with Mrs. Ruth Thompson as accompanist. Mrs. Thompson also played for the opening song.

Mrs. Paul W. Ballance, New Burnside, presented the courtesy report.

St. Ann's Altar Society Holds Regular Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of St. Ann's Altar society of St. Mary's Catholic church, which was held Wednesday evening in the church basement, was opened with prayer by Rev. T. G. Bruns. Two new members, Mrs. Alex Gall and Miss Dorothy Seidler, were introduced.

Mrs. Eugene Bridwell reported on the Valentine party held for the children and also on the activities of the Girl Scout troop of which she is leader. Mrs. E. E. Harold of the Sick committee reported three cheer cards, two birth congratulation cards and one courtesy card sent during the month of February. For the Ways and Means committee Mrs. Marie McCormick announced that 100 boxes of greeting cards would be ordered for re-sale to the members. Mrs. Steve Pfister fixed the dates for the pre-Easter cleaning of the church for Monday and Tuesday, March 28 and 29 and asked that everyone be present to help on those dates.

Mrs. Edw. Kezley, president of the Altar society, appointed Mrs. Nelle Wheatley, Mrs. Steve Pfister, Mrs. Wm. Zimmer, Mrs. J. J. Klein and Mrs. C. A. E. Hauptmann to meet with a committee from the Holy Name society to plan improvements on the church basement.

Mrs. J. J. Klein read a letter from the family in Germany who are receiving the benefits from this parish under the "Adopt A Family" program and it was decided to send clothing directly to them for the five children ranging in age from 5 to 13, these garments to be brought to the church basement on or before Saturday.

Mrs. Dave Evans announced that the day of Recollection would be held April 26, probably at Ridgway, and the Spring Deaneery meeting will be at Carmi March 30.

For the devotion Mrs. Wheatley read an interesting article from Bishop Sheen's "Way to Happiness."

Mrs. H. N. Jarvis, who had charge of the program, gave an inspiring talk on "Spiritual Development" and recommended "more praying, more thinking and more doing" as the best method to advance ourselves spiritually.

The meeting was closed by prayer by Father Bruns.

Earl (Bill) Kilburn, 401 East Ford, is in a serious condition in the Doctor's hospital in Carbondale where he was taken Wednesday with a cerebral hemorrhage.

Sir Fleming, Discoverer of Penicillin, Dies

LONDON — Sir Alexander Fleming, 73, the discoverer of penicillin, died today.

There had been no previous knowledge that Fleming was ill, and the cause of his death was not announced.

He died in his London home, not far from St. Mary's hospital where he discovered penicillin by accident. It was one of the most momentous accidents in the history of medicine.

The beneficial accident came about this way:

Fleming was putting about in his small laboratory in 1929. A speck-sized fleck of wind-borne mold was wafted through an open window. This was an event that set off a chain reaction leading to the eventual discovery of penicillin in 1942.

The speck settled in a saucer containing a germ culture. Fleming absently took a look at it through a microscope. The germs in the saucer were dying.

There the accident ended, and the genius took over. Working with the whisker-like vegetable molds such as housewives see on decayed fruit, Fleming made penicillin, the drug that almost miraculously prevents multiplication of bacteria in the human body.

He claimed no money for its development and made none from its manufacture.

Almost from the moment of penicillin's discovery, however, the fame of the soft-spoken Scot spread throughout the world. Fleming was hailed as the greatest benefactor of humanity since Madame Curie and Louis Pasteur.

Although Fleming made no money from the large scale manufacturers of penicillin after the war, spontaneous contributions were made to him both in Britain and the United States for his services to humanity.

Limping Goose

by Frank Gruber
COPYRIGHT 1954 BY FRANK GRUBER. DISTRIBUTED BY NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Broke again, Johnny Fletcher and his pal Sam Cragg, are playing detective to solve the murder of Jess Carmichael III, who was slain in the apartment of Alice Cummings. Johnny and Sam were suspects in the case when they obtained a goose bank from Alice in payment of a long overdue bill. After they managed to see the father of the murder victim, James Sutton, a cousin of Carmichael, offers them a substantial fee to find Lester Smithson, another cousin who disappeared 12 years ago.

XIII
With a sudden snarl of rage, Sam Cragg grabbed the hotel manager by the coat front. "You heard Johnny, didn't you? We're tired and we want to go to bed." "Unhand me, you—gorilla!" cried Peabody. "This is the last straw. I shall not only lock you out of your room, I shall turn you over to the police." "On what charge?" snapped Johnny. "Defrauding an innkeeper," snarled Peabody, still struggling to get out of Sam's grip. "Let him go, Sam," Johnny said. Then facing Peabody: "Now, see here, I'm getting sick and tired of hearing you harping on that subject. Just how much do you say we owe you?" "You know very well. It's $36 and it might as well be—." "Thirty-six dollars," snapped Johnny. "I've got a good notion to pay you and move out of this crummy joint." "Oh, you're moving, all right," howled Peabody. "On the other hand," Johnny went on, "I think I'll just pay up and stay here." "You're doing a lot of talking about paying," "I always pay my honest debts." "He reached into his pocket and brought out a sheaf of bills." "Thirty-six dollars, did you say?" Peabody gulped as he saw the money. "Wh-where did you get that?" "This small change? I've always got $36." "Then why didn't you pay your bill when it was due?" "Because you didn't ask me nice." Peabody skimmed through the bills, counting them. "Very well, you made it. But there isn't going to be another time. You'll pay each and every week hereafter, at the end of the week. I've got a good notion to make you pay in advance." "All I want is the same treatment as your other paying guests." Peabody opened his mouth to complain further, then thought better of it and went back behind his desk. Johnny and Sam rode upstairs. When the door was closed on them, Johnny said, "I was going to be decent about it and mail him the paper ticket for his suit, but after the way he's treated us, I ought to tear it up!" He didn't however.

Hard knuckles pounded the door of Room 821. Johnny rolled over in bed and looked at the door. The knuckles massaged the door panels once more.

"Open up, Fletcher," cried a voice outside the door.

Sam Cragg sat up in bed. "What's the idea, wakin' a man in the middle of the night?"

Johnny strode to the door. He shot back the bolt and whipped open the door. J. J. Kilkenny, smiling nastily, stepped in. Sam shook his head, let out a roar and started around the bed to get at Kilkenny.

The skip tracer coolly produced a snub-nosed revolver. "I'm not going to skin my knuckles on you, fat boy."

"Put down that dingus and I'll twist you into a pretzel." "Uh-uh," said Kilkenny. He reached back with his foot and shut the door. "Business before pleasure."

"I've got no more business with you," snapped Johnny. "Oh yes, you have," sneered Kilkenny. "Remember that money you collected on the skip was $22 short."

"You forgot my $10 commission."

"I applied that on your account," Kilkenny pointed to Sam Cragg with his revolver.

"You've got no right to carry a gun," Johnny said angrily.

"I got a license, that gives me a right."

"Since when are they giving licenses to bill collectors?"

"People threaten me," smirked Kilkenny. "A man's got a right to defend himself. Like now—I got a claim against you birds and if you make a pass at me, I can shoot you. I'm only defending myself."

"I ain't sure that pea-shooter'd even hurt me," said Sam Cragg dourly. "Don't crowd your luck."

"I'll make this short and sweet," snapped Kilkenny. "You didn't give me all the money that Miss Cummings gave you. I happen to know that she gave you a piggy bank full of small change. I want it."

Johnny's eyes went involuntarily to the dresser where the limping goose bank stood the day before.

Johnny turned his back on the bill collector and headed for the dresser. As he passed Sam, he winked and said quickly in an undertone, "Ready!"

He reached past Sam, pulled open the dresser drawer and took out the bronze limping goose bank.

"Here," he said to Kilkenny, and tossed the bank to him. He threw it to the right of Kilkenny, so the bill collector had to lunge for it with the hand holding the gun. The bank struck the gun and for an instant Kilkenny tried to juggle both the revolver and the limping goose.

Primary Missionary Girls Meet In Church Basement

The Primary Missionary church met in the church basement for school Tuesday, March 8, for the regular session.

The meeting opened with group singing, and with roll call which was answered with a Bible verse.

The lesson topic, "Jeep and Thumping Toth," was given by the leader, Mrs. Juanita Redock.

Games were played and refreshments served to Marla Schwartz, Cindy Dewitt, Darla Schwartz, Wanda Hamilton, Darla Jennings, Roberta Norman, Wilma Hamilton, Betty Campbell, Nancy Norman, Marla Ingram, Linda Bailey, Judy Ryan, Susie Cook, Tampra Nicholson and a guest, Peggy Hill.

The Baptist Seminary Extension Center is in its third week of operation with around 90 people enrolled. The courses are open to all denominations.

Who Saved
The Life
Of Margie
Jean?

ANSWER THE CALL!

JOIN YOUR RED CROSS

Margie Jean Orton nearly lost her life when a huge automobile tire rack fell on her in a service station near her home in Kansas. But many people knew what to do to save the life of Margie Jean. The doctor. The nurse. The ambulance driver. You helped, too. Because if you joined the Red Cross your generosity has helped to pay for the collecting, processing, storing and distributing of blood in blood banks, like the one that supplied nearly 40 transfusions for Margie Jean.

This is just one of many examples of how your Red Cross is people helping people. You are not alone when you need help or when you give help. That is the Red Cross way when disaster strikes; when blood or first aid saves a life; when a serviceman or his family needs help.

If you believe that no one should be alone when they need help or when they give help, you'll join your Red Cross and give generously.

There's even more to Chevrolet styling than meets the eye!

This is beauty with a bonus . . . for Chevrolet styling is designed to add safety and comfort while you drive, and to return greater value when you trade.

Truly modern lines are shaped by usefulness. You can see what we mean in the deep crystal curve of Chevrolet's Sweep-Sight windshield . . . a dramatic style note, certainly, but one that stems from the need for wider, safer vision. Or take high-set taillights—they add to the impressive length of line . . . but they are up where they can be seen for safety's sake.

The smart louvers across the hood aren't just decoration . . . they mark the intake for the High-Level ventilation system for cleaner, fresher air. And the whole shape of the body—its lowness, the dipped belt line—is merely a reflection of a lowered center of gravity, the added stability.

This is truly functional styling that serves you better every mile, and preserves its value against the distant day when you trade. This is Body by Fisher—another Chevrolet exclusive in the low-price field. Come in and let us demonstrate that this new Chevrolet is just as exciting to drive as to look at!

WASHINGTON (U)—Homer Ferguson, former Republican senator from Michigan, was nominated today by President Eisenhower to be the new ambassador to the Philippines.

Ferguson, former chairman of the GOP Policy committee of the Senate, was defeated for reelection last fall by Sen. Patrick McNamara, Democrat.

Ferguson was named to succeed Raymond A. Spruance, retired Navy admiral. Spruance resigned as ambassador last month.

Ferguson has been serving as a member of the Hoover commission on reorganization of the government since his defeat last November. He also has been serving as a consultant with the Defense Department.

Liberal Credit Terms Factor in Booming Sales
DETROIT (U)—The liberal credit terms being offered on new cars is at least one big factor behind the booming automobile sales which might set an all-time record in 1955.

In the industry, some of the credit terms go past the liberal point, and some spokesmen call them "crazy credit terms."

Whether "liberal" or "crazy," however, the terms being offered make it easier at times to buy a new car than not buy one.

Some dealers are selling cars with nothing down, five years to pay.

Some are even selling cars under deals by which a buyer drives the car free for a year without making a payment of any kind until after the first year.

Long Term Credit
In Detroit, a group of dealers are advertising: "Buy a new car and cut your monthly payments."

These ads cite cases in which people who owed $63 a month on their old cars, traded them in on new ones. The old mortgage was paid off and the payments on the new car were only $33 a month.

Already many car buyers are in effect merely "leasing" cars and never own one outright. By time they pay off one, or before that, they trade for a new car.

But with credit terms getting wilder, many in the industry, like the National Automobile Dealers Association, are wondering what many of the current credit offers are going to do to the automobile market.

The NADA has warned its members that extremely long term credit deals, just to keep monthly payments low, are going to tie up customers for longer periods than normal before they'll be ready or able to buy another new car.

Poor Credit Risks
"Selling under these circumstances is selling next year's business this year," the NADA says.

It also said that such long-term deals usually mean also a customer is being over-sold, and is being sold a new car when he should be sold a late model used car. It also warned that people who need such long terms often are poor credit risks, with a high rate of repossessions.

The long-term deals also are apt to mean customer dissatisfaction, the NADA warned.

It said under long-term credit deals a customer, because of depreciation on his car, might find himself in the position in a year or two of owing more on his car than the car is worth.

"What could be more frustrating?" the NADA added.

Unemployment Increases in State During February

SPRINGFIELD (U)—Total Illinois unemployment, covering all fields except farming, increased by more than 6,000 workers in the month ending in mid-February, the State Employment Service reported today.

The 6,300 worker drop, however, "compares favorably" with the average January-February seasonal decline, the service said.

Mid-February employment in non-farm work was 33,500 below employment figures for a year ago.

A sharp decline of construction industry employees—8,500—came later this winter, in February rather than the seasonal decline usually occurring in the December-January period, the service reported.

But employment in manufacturing industries increased by more than 9,000 workers as compared with a decline of 9,500 in the same month last year, the report added.

Briefs from Training Camps

GIANTS, Indians OPEN SPRING TOUR
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—The New York Giants and Cleveland Indians put the 1954 World Series "on tour" today in the opener of what should be one of the most successful series financially in spring training history.

Joe Margoneri, who was slated to make his debut for the world champions while Herb Score, the spring's most publicized rookie, is expected to be unveiled by the Indians. Score had a 2-3 record and struck out 330 for Indianapolis in the American Association in 1954.

The Giants were idle, except for routine workouts Thursday, while the Indians opened their Grapefruit league schedule with an 8-7 triumph over the Chicago Cubs at Tucson, Ariz. Doubles by Hal Naragon and Jim Cleverly were the key blows for the Indians.

FOUR CARDINAL ROOKIE PITCHERS SPECTACULAR
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals were buoyed today by the spectacular performances of four rookie pitchers, who limited the New York Yankees to a single hit in their Grapefruit league opener.

With Stan Musial, the only regular in the lineup going hitless, the Cardinals delighted Manager Eddie Stanky with a 7-0 triumph over the Yankees. Rookies Larry Jackson, Floyd Woodbridge, George Schults and Herb Loford collaborated for the one-hitter, with Gil McDougald's slow bouncer off Woodbridge going for the only blow.

The Cardinals rookies, meanwhile, lit into Bullet Bob Turley for seven runs and eight hits in three innings to spoil the former Baltimore Oriole fireballer's New York debut.

REDS BOW TO WHITE SOX IN EXHIBITION OPENER
BALTIMORE, Md. (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles opened their exhibition game schedule today against a Cincinnati Redlegs squad which couldn't do a thing right in its 1955 debut.

The Redlegs bowed to the Chicago White Sox, 10-7, in their exhibition opener at Tampa, Fla., Thursday with eight different Cincinnati players committing errors.

In addition, first baseman Ted Kluszewski escaped injury except to his pride when he was struck in the face by a wild throw.

Kluszewski left the game but expected to play today. Minnie Minoso's grand-slam home run led the White Sox to the triumph.

PIRATES BEAT KANSAS CITY A'S, 9-8
FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP)—Catcher Jack Shepard and first baseman Dale Long filed early bids today to nail down regular jobs with the Pittsburgh Pirates this year.

Shepard, who hit .304 in 82 games for Pittsburgh last season, and Long, a towering 210-pounder who was with Hollywood in 1954, each collected three hits Thursday to lead the Pirates to a 9-8 win over the Kansas City A's.

A crowd of 2,268, including Connie Mack, saw the Pirates win the game on shortstop Dick Groat's 10th-inning single. Groat, former Duke basketball star, was in military service last season.

Shawneetown Beats Herrin, 39-35, in Overtime

Centralia, Pinckneyville, Shawneetown, Anna Clash For Sectional Titles

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Centralia and West Rockford led 15 more teams into tonight's playoff round for the Illinois high school basketball sectional championships.

In there battling with the "big guys" for the 15 sectional crowns that mean berths in the "Sweet 16" finals next week will be little Shawneetown, the state's only unbeaten quintet. Shawneetown's gritty play Thursday night earned it a 39-35 victory over favored Herrin.

Mount Vernon's Rams, 1954 state champions, fell before the title-hungry Orphans of Centralia 75-68. The Orphans and Pinckneyville Panthers will go against each other with identical 29-2 records tonight. But one of Pinckneyville's losses was at the hands of Centralia in the Salem invitational on this same floor.

Play Tonight in Four Regional NCAA Playoffs

A defending champion La Salle team "at its season peak" and streak-riding San Francisco lead a glittering field tonight into the first round of four regional playoffs in the NCAA Basketball Tournament.

Eight of the teams in tonight's doubleheaders are survivors of preliminary round games Tuesday; the other eight are conference champions who had "bye" in that round.

Here's how they will square off:

At Philadelphia
La Salle (23-4) 14 points over Princeton (13-10) and Villanova (17-9) six over Canisius (17-6).

At Evanston, Ill.
Kentucky (22-2) two over Marquette (23-2) and Iowa (17-4) 11 over Penn State (18-8).

At Madison, Wis.
Southern Methodist (15-8) six over Bradley (8-19) and Colorado (16-5) three over Tulsa (20-6).

At Corvallis, Ore.
San Francisco (24-1) five over Utah (22-3) and Oregon State (21-7) 14 over Seattle (22-5).

Tonight's winners meet Saturday night at the same sites for the regional titles. Regional winners then go to Kansas City where, on March 18, the Philadelphia winner will meet the Evanston winner for the eastern championship and the Manhattan winner will meet the Corvallis winner for the western championship. Eastern and western winners will meet on March 19 for the national championship.

Brunette Slashes Wrestler on Leg with Mirror

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mary Eleanor Clements, 20-year-old shapely brunette, broke up a wrestling match Wednesday night with a mirror. She got so mad she reached into the ring and slashed one of the competitors on the leg.

The victim was the Japanese wrestler Mr. Moto. Bleeding and swearing, he stalked out of the ring and refused to return to complete a two-out-of-three tag bout.

Miss Clements showed up in Municipal Court Thursday to answer his charge of assault and battery, but Mr. Moto wasn't there to press the matter and the complaint was dropped.

Miss Clements said she cut Mr. Moto because he was ripping the bandage off a forehead wound of one of his opponents, Freddie Blasie, who had been injured in Baltimore the night before.

Blasie, Miss Clements explained, is one of her favorite wrestlers and she didn't like to see him getting the worst of it.

Miksis Hits Homer AS CUBS LOSE, 9-7

MESA, Ariz. (AP)—It happens every spring—light-hitting Eddie Miksis is flashing long-ball hitting power for the Chicago Cubs.

Miksis, a fine spring hitter who usually winds up with a season's batting average of around .250, was the lone bright spot as the Cubs bowed, 9-7, to the Cleveland Indians Thursday. Miksis provided the big blow for the Cubs—a long homer.

The Cubs are idle today but resume their exhibition schedule Saturday against the New York Giants' B team.

Look for Navy to become a national basketball as well as football power now that the Middles' height limit has been upped to 6-6 and, confides Coach Ben Carnevale, the admiral who okayed the new regulation has a boy who's only 5-2... and stands but 5-4 himself... also, it might be noted, he attends all Navy basketball games.

Alex Cushing, the snow man who's parlayed Squaw Valley and California winters into a bid for the 1960 winter Olympics, once lived on the island of Bali... also admits he got into the ski business by going to Canada on a long week end to drink beer... and wound up breathing mountain air.

After setting a new indoor pole vault mark at the Knights of Columbus meet, the Rev. Bob Richards spent the next 24 hours a) hopping a plane to California at 1 a.m.; b) addressing a sermon to his congregation at Lomita, Calif., after arrival that morning; c) conducting a wedding at 2 p.m.; d) preaching another sermon late that afternoon; and e) conducting a youth group meeting that evening.

So who said on the seventh day he rested? The Ricochetting Reverend, Vaulting Vicar, Pogo Parson or Polevaulting Preacher (which he lists as some of the names he's been called) is thinking of devoting his life to evangelism after the '56 Olympics... and denies that he's ever run down the center aisle, bamboo in hand, and vaulted into the pulpit.

Reading itself for Broadway just after the start of the season is a baseball musical called "Damn Yankees," based on a book by (get this!) Douglas Wallop... with a curtain composed of 1800 bona fide Spalding baseballs... and uniforms donated by the Washington Senators... Oh, yeah, Can Can's Gwen Verdon will decorate the scenery, too.

He's not about to go broke, but it's amazing how little Rocky Marciano has capitalized on his heavy-weight title... with less than $5500 in endorsements... and only 15 refereeing and three speaking engagements, plus two television appearances in the last year... (Leo Durocher alone had 45 speaking engagements during the winter)... Bill Heinz is ghosting a forthcoming national magazine piece for the Rock on how it feels to be champion... And can it be true that Elia Kazan dropped any notion of a Rocky Marciano story on celluloid because Al Weill mentioned that he (Weill) also had a great story to tell?

Bill Russell, the 6-10 San Francisco All-American who'll be with us another year, only went out for track last spring because he liked the sweater awarded the letter.

Indians Play Anna Tonight; Only One Win From Play in Sweet 16

Today the undefeated Shawneetown Indians are just one victory away from a trip to the University of Illinois as a member of the "Sweet 16."

Last night Shawneetown came up with its biggest victory of this unbeaten season with a thrilling 39-35 victory over a favored Herrin club. The game went into an overtime before the decision was made.

In last night's sectional tournament win over Herrin at Marion, Shawneetown displayed the raw courage and poise of which champions are made.

Trailing 10 points early in the final frame and Herrin controlling the ball, things looked black indeed for Shawneetown, but the Indians refused to panic or fold under the terrific pressure.

Instead the Gallatin county boys continued to play a careful, more-or-less deliberate type of ball and took full advantage of every opportunity.

Herrin, on the other hand, "blew" three set ups and that is the story of the game.

Herrin, playing a stall with a minute to go in each of the first three quarters, started to stall with more than six minutes to play in the final quarter and killed at least a minute as Gray and Jones, back court operators, did a fine job of dribbling.

Finally Gray saw an opening in the Indian defense, drove down the middle and shot, but missed. Shawneetown took the rebound, came down and scored.

Score Nine Straight Points
Shortly thereafter Lawrence of Herrin missed a lay up and again Shawneetown took the rebound, hurried down and scored another basket.

In this big drive Shawneetown scored nine straight points while holding Herrin pointless.

With the score 32-22, Spottsville had a basket, then a free throw. Nolen two baskets, then another bucket for Spottsville and the score read Herrin 32, Shawneetown 31. Two free tosses by McPherson upped Herrin's lead to 34-31, then Nolen narrowed it to 34-33 on another two-point.

Trailing 33-34 and 30 seconds to play, Spottsville slipped under the basket for a two-point and for the first time in the game Shawneetown was on top, 35-34. A free throw by Lawrence of Herrin knotted the count at 35-35 at the end of regulation time.

In the overtime the Indians got the ball and started a control game of their own. Nolen and Joyner each hit a basket during the three-minute period and Herrin was held scoreless, giving Shawneetown a four-point 39-35 decision.

Spottsville Gets Ovation
In the overtime period Spottsville and Lawrence collided as Spottsville was bringing the ball down the floor and the Indian center bounced against the wall hard and required first aid.

He got a tremendous ovation when he finally got to his feet and continued play.

Nolen's fine under-the-basket play and perfect rebounding on missed free throws paid off for six baskets, tops for any individual for the evening.

A standing room only crowd witnessed the tense, exciting game. The gym doors were opened at 6:45 and the big hall filled rapidly. Thirty minutes before the 8 o'clock tip off time every seat was taken and the walls were lined with standees.

Tonight Shawneetown meets Anna-Jonesboro for the championship of the sectional and a trip to the state finals at Champaign.

Nationalist Navy Ordered to Halt Tanker

TAIPEI, Formosa (U) — The Nationalist government has ordered its navy to intercept the Finnish tanker Aruba carrying 13,000 tons of jet plane fuel to Red China, authoritative sources said today.

The tanker, which passed through Port Said recently with jet fuel from the Romanian oil fields, was thought to be somewhere between Suez and Singapore.

The Nationalists believed its destination was the port of Foochow at the mouth of the Min River and near the Nationalist offshore island of Matsu.

The Communists have recently massed large concentrations of jet planes in this area of southeastern China—including modern Mig-17s—an improved version of the Mig-15—apparently for attacks against Matsu or Formosa.

"We will capture this ship if we can," a high-ranking Nationalist official told United Press.

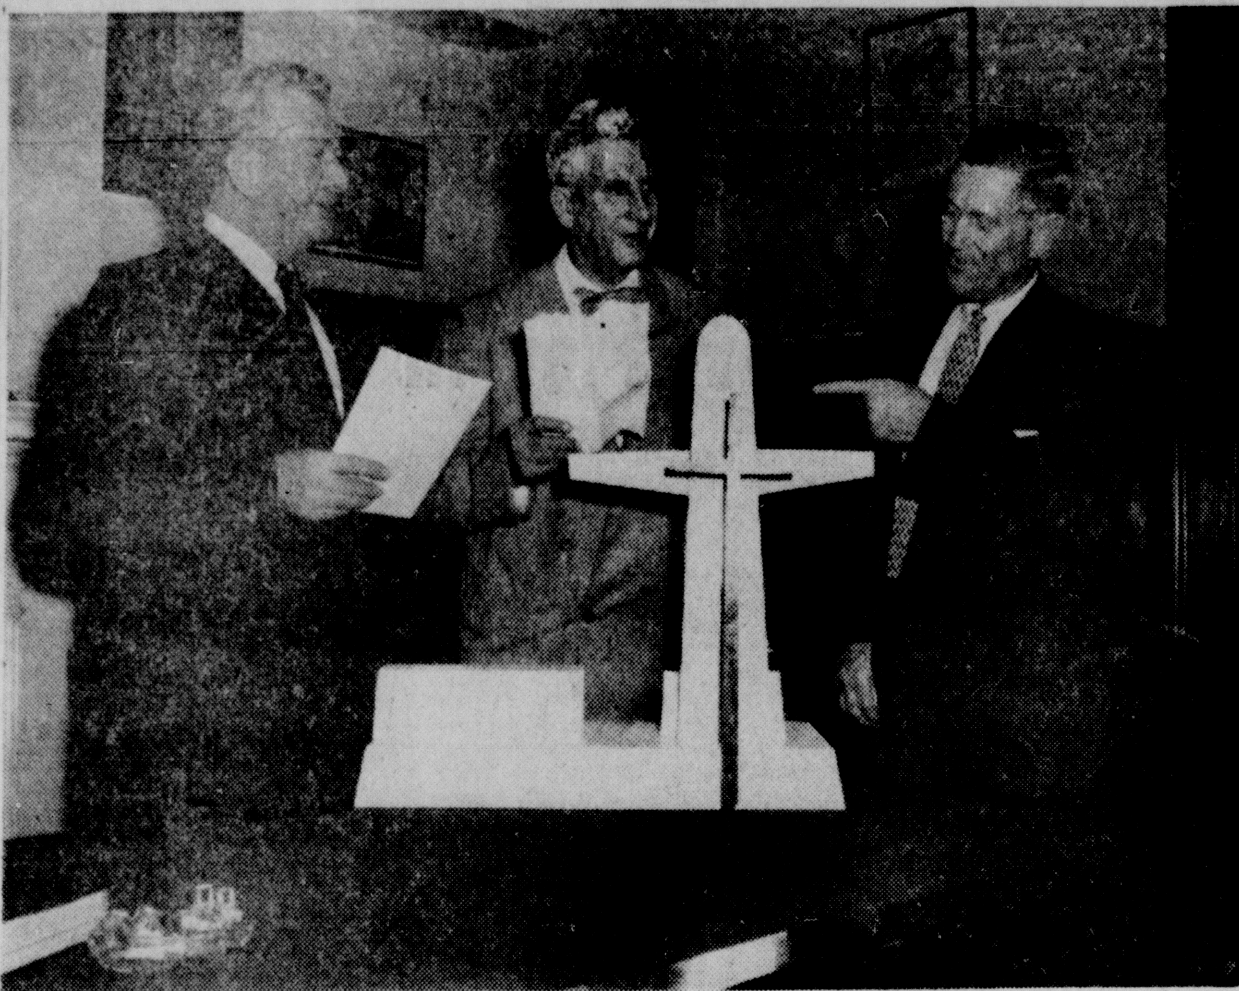

The Nationalist Navy previously captured two Polish and one Russian tanker which attempted to ram jet fuel through the Nationalist China blockade.

Communist China warned the United States only Wednesday it would have to bear the "full responsibility" if it "dares" to try to intercept the tanker.

The Peiping regime ignored the Nationalist Navy as such and warned the United States against daring "to direct and help the traitor Chiang Kai-shek to intercept the Finnish tanker."

A U. S. Air Force officer said the Aruba's fuel would be enough for 5,000 Communist jet missions against Nationalist China's outpost islands.

Britain has refused permission for the Finnish tanker to take on fuel in Singapore, but Nationalist authorities said it could easily obtain supplies in Indonesia.
